Sri Swamiji's Music

Sri Swamiji conveys an important part of His message through His music. Sri Swamiji's music is devotional and used for spiritual energy transmission.

Music is a harmonizing factor in today's world which is full of stress, conflicts and tensions. Transgressing man-made frontiers, Music sends the message of harmony, peace and brotherhood.

Followers around the world have received immense benefit through His concerts, everything from stress relief, spiritual guidance, and healing.

Swamiji's therapy lays stress on concentration on the part of the Healer-Musician and listener. Listening is a special technique requiring sense control.

Sri Swamiji

Sri Swamiji is a well known spiritual personality with special prowess in Music for Meditation and Healing. He is considered as the patron saint of Music in India. Sri Swamiji has performed in more than 400 concerts all around the globe, thereby benefiting innumerable number of people. In recent years, Sri Swamiji's music events were held in several famous and prestigious music halls such as Lincoln Center (New York), Westminster Hall (London, UK), Chicago Symphony Concert Hall (Chicago), and Bass Performance Hall (Fort Worth). Swamiji plays a synthesizer which produces the sounds of many instruments. The resounding synthesizer sets pace and the other instruments keep company, thereby resulting in a melodious fusion that produces Divine Healing at the gross, subtle and Spiritual levels.
